FOR OFFICIAL DIRECTORY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

The OFFICIAL DIRECTORY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, published by the City, is a standard reference book of City, State and Federal Agencies, and should be one-hundred percent accurate.

That result can only be obtained with your cooperation.

The following information, tentatively prepared for the next OFFICIAL DIRECTORY, is submitted to you for verification. I would appreciate it very much if you will have that information carefully checked, and cause such corrections or additions to be made as you deem essential.

A prompt return of the proof is respectfully requested.

Director ----- Allen W. Dulles
Deputy Director ----- Lt. Gen. C. P. Cabell, USAF

CREATION AND AUTHORITY.--The Central Intelligence Agency was established under the National Security Council by the National Security Act of 1947 (61 Stat. 496, 498; 50 U. S. C. Sup. 403). The Director and Deputy Director are appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

PURPOSE.--For the purpose of co-ordinating the intelligence activities of the several Government departments and agencies in the interest of national security, the Agency, under the direction of the National Security Council:

1. Advises the National Security Council in matters concerning such intelligence activities of the Government departments and agencies as relate to national security.
2. Makes recommendations to the National Security Council for the co-ordination of such intelligence activities of the departments and agencies of the Government as relate to the national security.
3. Correlates and evaluates intelligence relating to the national security, and provides for the appropriate dissemination of such intelligence within the Government using, where appropriate, existing agencies and facilities.
4. Performs, for the benefit of the existing intelligence agencies, such additional services of common concern as the National Security Council determines can be more efficiently accomplished centrally.
5. Performs such other functions and duties related to intelligence affecting the national security as the National Security Council may from time to time direct.

Approved.

ALLEN W. DULLES,
Director
